My question is... what would happen to a person that takes these 2015 legal PHs, such as 4Andro or Mandro, continuously without doing the rest phase? What about without even doing the PCT? Just go on living taking these pills every day? If its really bad for you, Is there a way to always be cycling (ex: 2wk PH/2wk PCT/2wk RST cycle)? What are the side effects? I mention "legal" because, as it is, the government outlawed the super strong methalized PHs, and left us with these ones that are still efficeint and less damaging to the body
